Letter from Mayor Olson

Dear Franklin Constituent:

We're in the middle of a beautiful summer and the City continues to safely move forward through the pandemic. Our Health Department continues to provide guidance on social distancing and safe operation to Franklin businesses, restaurants, and bars to keep everyone safe from exposure to the COVID-19 virus, yet move toward returning to more normal activities.

You probably have noticed the new sign at Ballpark Commons for Franklin Field. In partnership with the Tourism Commission, ROC Ventures and the Milwaukee Milkmen are joining forces to "Engage Franklin" in a comprehensive package of activities to brand Franklin and encourage tourism for our City. That included a long-term naming agreement for the ballpark and soon a new name for the area that will change from Ballpark Commons; a visitors tourism center; a tourism director; regular events to attract visitors; a new set of social media and website; and a host of other promotional activities for the City (see article on page 4 of this newsletter to learn more about "Engage Franklin"). You'll also see new entrance signage, new banners throughout the City, and a new sign in front of City Hall with an LED board with current events. ALL of this is accomplished without use of property tax money. The money comes from hotel/motel room tax dollars.

I'm happy to welcome two new management personnel to the City. Peggy Steeno as the Director of Administration and Heath Eddy as Planning Manager. I have high expectations for both and they have already had an impact on the City in the short time they've been with us. I hope you get a chance to meet them.

Development continues to roll along in the City. We're pleased to welcome Biggby Coffee to the Shoppes at Wyndham Village that will be opening this fall. Those who are in a hurry will be able to drive through and pick up their morning Americano at the new shop that will be on the end closest to Target on the Highway 100 side of the development.

And as I've mentioned before, we're proud to be one of the sites for the MBA 2020 Parade of Homes in the Ryanwood Manor Subdivision on W. Oakwood Road and S. 76th Street—August 15 through September 7. Seven builders will show their latest model homes.

The Clerk's office is working hard in preparation for the August 11th Primary Election for state offices. As was for our election in April, we will be social distancing at the polls and will have appropriate sanitizing methods in place for your protection and the protection of our poll workers.

As always, if you have a city-related question or need, please contact your alderman, myself, or any City staff. Our contact information is listed to the left on this page of the newsletter. We're here to help.

Sincerely,

Mayor Steve Olson

The City Welcomes Peggy Steeno as its New Director of Administration

At their meeting of May 5, 2020, the Common Council confirmed Mayor Steve Olson's appointment of Peggy Steeno as its new Director of Administration for the City of Franklin. Peggy began her duties with the City on July 6th.

Peggy comes to us with more than 28 years of public sector experience, including positions with the State of Wisconsin, the Cities of Waukesha, Oshkosh, Menasha, and, most recently, the City of West Allis, where she has served in various roles, most recently as Director of Finance/Comptroller/Treasurer. Her varied experience makes her the ideal candidate for Franklin's top staff executive.

Peggy's educational background includes an undergraduate degree in Accounting and German, along with a Master of Business Administration focusing on Human Resources and Training and Technology. In addition, she is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in the State of Wisconsin.

Mayor Olson desired to find a candidate who sees "the big picture", will function as a strong leader, and can be an innovative problem solver with strong finance and communication skills. Mayor Olson noted that, "The detailed process and my conversations with Peggy make me confident that she is the right person to help move the City forward in this important position. I believe she will be an exceptional leader and a policy innovator and will serve the Council, the staff, and citizens well through these challenging financial times," explained Mayor Olson.

"I am very excited to have the opportunity to serve the City of Franklin," said Steeno. "I look forward to working on new challenges with the citizens, staff, and elected officials to continue to move Franklin forward in a positive manner!"

Steen and her husband are residents of West Allis and are avid sports fans and enjoy the outdoors. They have two grown children.

Safety Tips from the Franklin Fire Department

With the hustle and bustle of the Summer season, we're often in a hurry as we prepare meals; all the while thinking about the next activity we have to rush off to, trying to keep an eye on the little ones, dealing with text messages, phone calls, and children asking where they can find their sneakers! Keeping a few safety tips in mind can keep things moving and prevent a tragedy.

According to the National Fire Protection Association, cooking fires are the #1 cause of home fires and home fire injuries with more than half (55%) of home cooking fires started with the ignition of food or other cooking materials. Please consider the following safety tips while cooking:

- Create a 3 foot "kid free zone" around your stove or grill. This not only prevents burns, but also allows better concentration on the cooking process.
- Do not cook when you are tired, have taken medication that may make you drowsy, or have consumed alcohol.
- Do not leave cooking unattended. When baking or simmering food, set a timer. If you go to another part of the house, take a portable timer with you as well or turn the burner off.
- Never walk away from food that is broiling or frying. If it is necessary to leave the area, turn the stove/oven off.
- If you are baking or simmering food and the doorbell rings, you receive a telephone call, or have to leave the area; hold a potholder or large utensil in your hand—this will help remind you that you have food cooking/baking when you are done.
- Do not wear loose fitting clothing and pull back long hair while cooking. Long hair, long sleeves, bathrobes, or unzipped/unbuttoned jackets and sweaters can brush the burner or oven as you lean forward.
- Make sure all pan handles are turned to the side. Handles left turned towards the front of the stove can potentially be bumped and cause spills and burns. The contents of these pans can also cause devastating burns to children who may curiously grasp onto the forward-facing handles.
- Keep all flammable items, such as towels, dish clothes, potholders, cooking sprays and oils away from the stove.
- If you have a small stove-top fire, slide the pan cover onto the pan, move the pan to an unused burner, and shut the burner off. Contact the fire department to check to make sure the fire is fully extinguished and the heat has not penetrated into the nearby cupboard or wall where it could smolder and later ignite.
- It is Wisconsin state law that all fires must be reported. Be safe! The fire department would much rather come to your home to prevent a fire from occurring, than to fight a fire.
- Extinguish very small oven fires using baking soda—never use flour to try to put out a fire.
- If you have a significant oven or microwave oven fire, turn the oven off, do not open the oven door as introducing air will cause the fire to grow. Evacuate everyone from inside your home and call 9-1-1 from outside your home.
- Keep all cooking surfaces clean to help prevent fires.

If you experience a minor burn, immediately run the burn under "cool" water for several minutes. If your clothing or body catches on fire: STOP immediately, use your hands to protect your face, DROP to the ground, and ROLL as far as you can from side-to-side until the fire is extinguished. Seek immediate emergency care.

Please contact the Franklin Fire Prevention Office at 414-427-7582 with any fire safety questions.
Have a safe and enjoyable summer!

There Is No Such Thing as "Safe" Fireworks!

The Franklin Fire Department would like to remind you that if fireworks "go up" or "blow up", they are illegal in the City of Franklin. Due to many fireworks being illegal, as well as the burn, fire, and life-threatening dangers involved with using fireworks, the Franklin Fire Department urges citizens to forego utilizing fireworks for special events and holidays.

- ◆ Each year thousands of devastating fireworks-related burn injuries, contusions, lacerations, and even deaths occur due to the use of fireworks by citizens to celebrate throughout the summer months.
- ◆ According to the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), more than 19,500 reported fires are started by fireworks in the United States annually; with emergency rooms treating more than 9,000 fireworks injuries, mostly to hands, fingers, legs, and eyes. Sparklers alone account for roughly one-fourth of annual fireworks injuries. The risk of fireworks injury is highest for children ages 10 to 14, with more than one-third (36%) of the victims under the age of 15.
- ◆ The most common fireworks-related question we receive is, "Is there any safe firework?" Our answer is, "No".
- ◆ Many adults have shared childhood memories of playing with sparklers, not realizing just how hot they get or how dangerous they truly are. Sparklers can reach 1,200 degrees, hot enough to cause 3rd degree burns; some even reaching 1,800 degrees, hot enough to melt gold! Use glow sticks as an alternative to sparklers.
- ◆ A few great ideas instead of fireworks: Glow sticks, noise makers, silly string!

Please choose safe alternatives to fireworks for your family and avoid life-altering injuries. The Franklin Fire Department Fire Prevention Office can be reached at 414-427-7582, should you have questions regarding fire safety.

Franklin Citizen Police Academy

Due to COVID-19, Class #27 of the Franklin Police Department Citizen Police Academy was cancelled. The class will resume beginning Tuesday, September 1, 2020, with the original enrolled participants.

Class #28 of the Franklin Citizen Police Academy is expected to begin Tuesday, March 2, 2021, for 12 consecutive weeks.

A notice for applications will be posted in the City Newsletter and on the Franklin Police Department Facebook page prior to class start. Please watch for sign-up information!

Franklin Gets Engaged!

The Franklin Tourism Commission is partnering with ROC Ventures, developer of Ballpark Commons, to create a new independent tourism initiative called Engage Franklin. Engage Franklin will hire a full-time Tourism Director to be housed in the ROC Ventures office building next to the Milwaukee Milkmen Stadium, which has been renamed “Franklin Field” to reflect the Milwaukee Milkmen’s home community and to help Engage Franklin with branding the City of Franklin for visitors. This partnership and stadium name will complement the Tourism Commission’s placemaking efforts that are already underway with gateway signs and City banners throughout the community.

Along with full-time dedicated staffing to support tourism efforts in Franklin, Engage Franklin is creating a Visitors Center where guests can gather information on all the fun things to do, experiences to be had, places to stay, and things to eat here in Franklin. Franklin is home to 17 parks on over 173 acres, 435 hotel/motel rooms (with more on the way), 69 eateries (with more on the way), and several destinations for tourists to enjoy. This is in addition to the offerings already available to residents and to the 300,000+ annual visitors who come to Ballpark Commons for Milwaukee Milkmen games, baseball tournaments, the Umbrella Bar, summer concert series, food truck events, the Rock Snow Park, the Hills Have Eyes, and the upcoming indoor performance and wellness sports village and Luxe Golf. Together, the Tourism Commission and ROC Ventures are looking forward to this new endeavor and the opportunity to comprehensively promote and support all of Franklin’s tourism-based businesses.

While working on this partnership, the Tourism Commission has also finished their new website, CelebrateFranklin.com, and its associated social media channels. These virtual elements will provide another avenue to support and promote Engage Franklin and entice visitors to play – and stay – in Franklin.

About the Engage Franklin Partners

ROC Ventures, whose mission is to provide a ‘return on community’ through successful operation of product offerings where we live, work, and play, is the developer of Ballpark Commons, an entertainment district that is largely situated on an old landfill. In addition to the tourism-based activities described above, Ballpark Commons is also home to Velo Village, a 265-unit, high-end apartment development that is currently under construction; New Perspectives Senior Living, which offers full-spectrum senior living options; and a recently announced Holiday Inn Express. There is room for three additional developments at Ballpark Commons and Engage Franklin will be actively seeking a brew pub to join the mix of offerings.

The Tourism Commission formed in 2017 and consists of 5 members appointed by the Franklin Common Council. The Commission is considered an independent body whose only source of revenue is hotel/motel room tax and whose primary focus is on tourism-based activities that support the lodging industry. The Commission’s mission is to promote the City as the premiere destination in southeast Wisconsin for fun, business, entertainment and recreation; and to follow these Core Values:

MARKET: Engage in marketing activities designed to increase tourism awareness.

BRAND: Brand Franklin as a place that has high quality of life for both residents and visitors.

WELCOME: Support visitors and businesses.

DEVELOP: Engage in activities designed to bring additional revenue streams.

Welcome Heath Eddy as New City Planning Manager!

At their meeting of May 19, 2020, the Common Council confirmed Mayor Steve Olson’s appointment of Heath R. Eddy as Planning Manager for the City of Franklin. Heath began his new role with the City on June 22nd.

Heath comes to the City with over 24 years of experience in both the public and private sector, having served in different capacities as Planner, Senior Planner, and Director of Planning and Zoning positions with Monroe County and City of Bloomington, Indiana; Chester County and Honey Brook Township, Pennsylvania; Fairfax County, Virginia; and, most recently, as Executive Director for Luzerne County Department of Planning & Zoning in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.

Heath’s educational background includes a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and a Master of Urban and Regional Planning focusing on Environmental Management and Urban Design, Transportation.

One of Heath’s critical beliefs is that customer service, in the public sector in particular, makes a big difference. “We work for the public so it is very important that they understand what it is we are looking for and what it is we are about,” explains Heath. An innovative thinker, Heath states he has developed over his many years of experience “the ability to develop and implement tools and processes by which to address local needs and challenges. Most of all, I bring a lot of enthusiasm to the profession!”

Mayor Olson commented that, “Heath stood out in a very strong pool of candidates. His experience and customer-focused attitude made him the unanimous choice of the Committee”.

Heath currently lives in Slinger and is happy to be back closer to family. His main hobbies are music and reading.

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Update

With an increase in recreational opportunities outside of the home comes an increase in the risk of contracting and transmitting COVID-19. The numbers of those testing positive for COVID-19 have begun to trend upward in many areas of the country and our own State. We are seeing this upward trend creep into Franklin as well, proving that COVID-19 is still very present in our area. While the warm weather may be calling us to venture out in Franklin or other parts of the State, it is even more important than ever that we all play our role in preventing the spread of COVID-19.

Remember to take these precautions:

- Stay home if you are feeling ill.
- Wash hands frequently with soap and water.
- Maintain physical distance of at least 6 feet.
- Cover coughs and sneezes with your elbow.
- Regularly clean high-touch surfaces.
- When possible, use a mask or face covering in public settings, especially when you cannot ensure 6 feet of physical distancing.

Exciting News for the City of Franklin Forestry

Have you ever wondered what kind of tree is planted along your road? Citizens will now have the ability to find out. Through a WI-DNR Urban Forest Grant, the City of Franklin tree inventory has been updated and published on the Wisconsin Community Tree Map at <https://pg-cloud.com/Wisconsin>. Tree information available to be viewed on this tree map is species, size, condition, location, and year planted. This information is helpful to guide decision-making on how to best manage the 10,000 City street trees. One of the best features of the Wisconsin Community Tree Map is the "benefits calculator". This calculator tells the appraised value of each tree, ecological benefits such as storm water mitigation and carbon reduction, and overall benefit to the community. The tree map information will be updated regularly after each City planting.

Tom Riha, City Forester (in bucket), and Craig Woltz of the Franklin DPW perform pruning operations on City street trees.

One large problem that the tree map highlights is the over representation of Maple trees along City of Franklin roadways. This problem can also be seen in the private landscape. Currently, the City tree population contains 34% Maple trees. This puts the urban forest at risk if a species-specific insect or disease attacks. The Emerald Ash Borer was an example of this happening, destroying 30% of the City street trees. Industry recommendations are that no genus, i.e. Maple, comprise more than 20% with no species, i.e. Norway, Red, or Silver, comprising more than 10%. The City "recommended street tree list" includes trees suitable for planting along roadways. This tree list can be found at <https://www.franklinwi.gov/Departments/Engineering-Public-Works/HighwayParks/City-ForesterCity-Street-Trees.htm>.

Another good resource for homeowners, created by Dr. Laura Jull from the University of Wisconsin–Madison, can be found at <https://hort.extension.wisc.edu/files/2015/06/Alternatives-to-Ash-for-Professionals.pdf>. Please note this list includes Maples for areas where they are not over-represented. This resource gives examples based on size and is more suitable for locations not inclusive of roadways.
